

German for beginners

Description

In this course you learn German in a relaxed atmosphere and practise speaking in everyday life situations.

Objectives

At the end of this course you will be able to:

- introduce yourself
- speak about your family, job, hobbies and eating and shopping habits
- use basic German in your everyday life

Content

- Introducing yourself, saying hello and goodbye
- The alphabet, sounds, pronunciation
- Days, time and dates
- Asking and answering questions about you, your home or job
- Shopping, prices, what you like or don't like eating
- Showing you understand or are having difficulty communicating
- Information about Switzerland

Requirements

No knowledge of German required. Please plan some time for self-study.