

German Level A1

Description

In this A1 level course you learn German in a relaxed atmosphere and practise speaking in everyday life situations.

Objectives

Our courses are based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR)

At the end of the A1 level you will be able to:

- introduce yourself
- speak about your family, job, hobbies and eating and shopping habits
- use German in your everyday life

Content

- Introducing yourself, saying hello and goodbye
- The alphabet, sounds, pronunciation
- Days, time and dates
- Asking and answering questions about you, your home or job
- Shopping, prices, what you like or don't like eating
- Showing you understand or are having difficulty communicating
- Information about Switzerland

Requirements

Very basic knowledge of German required. Please plan some time for self-study. Try our online placement test, it's free of charge.